RMSC

Rotterdam, your gateway to maritime business

Rotterdam is internationally known for its large and strong port. Lesser known is that Rotterdam is also an important domicile for companies that provide professional services to the maritime industry. This involves a wide range of companies like banks, insurance companies, insurance brokers, lawyers, accountants, tax consultants, surveyors and other related businesses. These companies, are concentrated in Rotterdam and benefit from the strong image of the region as a leading center for maritime business.

What is RMSC?

The Rotterdam Maritime Services Community (RMSC) is a branch community for companies that provide business services to the maritime industry. The RMSC stimulates cooperation on those issues that determine the international competitiveness of the Rotterdam region.

The RMSC aims to strengthen the international profile of the Rotterdam based maritime businesses and invests in knowledge and education for this industry. On these themes RMSC cooperates with governments, other branch communities and research institutions.

What can RMSC offer you?

As a member, you have access to a strong network of companies, governments and research institutions. We provide knowledge on trends that are relevant to your business and as a member you can join activities that make the maritime sector in Rotterdam stronger, such as:

- Network meetings and seminars;
- International profiling in close cooperation with other maritime businesses, by participating in conferences and trade missions;
- Jointly exploring and analysing trends that will affect the maritime sector in the coming years;
- Strengthening the image of maritime business services among young professionals and improving education at universities and academies.
